Hambourg, May 25.

THE following Letter from the Emperour to our Magiſtrates, has been printed here: It was brought by Count Damian Hugo of Schonborn, who arriv'd a few Days ago in the Camp of the Troops of the Circle of lower Saxony before this City.

'JOSEPH, by the Grace of God elected Emperour of the Romans, always Auguſt, &c.

Honourable, Beloved, Truſty.

WE have receiv'd Information from ſeveral Quarters of the Empire, and even from foreign Parts, that Miſunderſtandings and Diſſentions have grown up to that Height in Our and the Empire's City of Hambourg committed to your Government, that at the Inſtigation of ſome turbulent Perſons, the common People have frequently gather'd together in the Town-houſe, arm'd and in a riotous Manner, and there made Rules and Ordinances for the City, paſs'd Sentences and awarded Executions; affronted and proſecuted thoſe of the City-Councellors who oppos'd their unlawful and violent Proceedings, even turning them out of their Offices, and putting others into their Rooms; and wholly ſet aſide the antient good Regulations, and the Form of Government that has been in Force and Uſe from Time immemorial; ſo that the utter Subverſion of the Liberty of the City muſt ſpeedily enſue, unleſs a ſtop be put to the Evil without further delay. Now ſeeing it highly concerns Us (as Your and the Empire's Head) together with the whole Empire in General, and the Cirles next adjacent to you in particular, to apply a Remedy to ſuch Diſorders; We have out of our Paternal Solliciture for the Empire, appointed and commanded (beſides our Miniſter conſtantly reſiding in the Circle of lower Saxony) our Envoy the noble Count of Schonborn &c, not only to repreſent theſe things to the Directors of the Circle of lower Saxony, but in eſpecial Manner to impart our Imperial Commiſſion, Authority, and Power to the King of Pruſſia and the Elector of Hanover, to the End that they, by their Sub-delegates, may together with him examine into the Cauſes of this Dangerous Sedition and Inſurrection, and by effectual Means rectify all Abuſes. We aſſure our ſelves that the ſaid laudable and illuſtrious Princes, will out of their Zeal for the common Good and the City's Welfare, readily accept this Commiſſion, and omit nothing that may effectually conduce to the End propos'd. And as we doubt not that among Burghers ſo conſiderable for their Worth and Number as are yours, the greater Part at leaſt do diſapprove and abhor ſuch deſtructive Diſſentions in the State and City, and will contribute to the ſpeedy quieting and ſuppreſſing of them, We have therefore thought fit to notify this our Commiſſion to you, to the End both you and your Burghers may pay due Obedience thereto. We moſt graciouſly expect, that you and the faithful Burghers, will not only not oppoſe this our Imperial and Paternal Care, but give all neceſſary Aſſiſtance to the rendring it effectual; and thereby evidently ſhew, that You and they have a much greater Regard to the good of the City and the Advancement of Commerce, as alſo to your own and your Neighbours Quiet, (conformably to the Obligations which every one is under to Us, to the Empire, and to the State or Government of which he is more eſpecially a Member,) than to the heady, ſelfiſh, and often dangerous Deſigns and Enterpriſes of one or other Faction of turbulent Men: For ſo doing you will have our gracious Acknowledgment. We remain graciouſly diſpos'd towards you, &c. Given in our City of Vienna the 25th of April 1708, in the 19th of our Roman, the 21ſt of our Hungarian, and the 3d of our Bohemian Reign.

JOSEPH.

Vt. Fred. Car. Count of Schonborn.

By expreſs Command of his ſacred Imperial Majeſty.

C. F. Consbrug.

The Superſciption was,

To the Honourable, Our and the Empire's beloved and truſty, N. the Burgomaſter and Council of the City of Hambourg.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated June 1.

Hambourg, May 25. The Magiſtrates and Burghers aſſembled Yeſterday in the Town-houſe, and after great Conteſts it was reſolv'd at laſt to admit into the City ſuch a Number of Men of the Troops of the Circle of lower Saxony, as may be ſufficient for the Security of the Miniſters of the Directors of the Circle during the Time the Imperial Commiſſion or Mediation ſhall be negociated. While the ſaid Aſſembly was held Yeſterday, ſome wicked Fellow fir'd a Muſquet in at the Window, and wounded a Burgher dangerouſly: The Magiſtrates immediately caus'd Proclamation to be made by Sound of Trumpet, that whoever diſcover'd that Miſcreant ſhould have 100 Crowns Reward. This Morning ſome Deputies of the Magiſtracy are gone out to the Army, to treat with the Miniſters of the Circle concerning the Number of the Troops that are to enter the City. The Miniſters of Great Britain and Holland are likewiſe gone to the Camp, to interpoſe their good Offices on the ſame Subject. The Daniſh Troops are in Motion, and 500 of their Dragoons are expected at Altena from Segeberg. They write from Gluckſtad, that 2 Frigates are fitting out there to be employ'd on the Elbe, and that the Queen's Regiment Garriſon'd in Oldenbourg, is to come by Water from thence to Gluckſtad. Letters from Copenhagen of the 22d Inſtant tell us, that the King of Denmark has orderd that the Infantry and Dragoons of Laland and Zeeland ſhall rendezvous the 8th of June near Ringſter, where his Majeſty will take a Review of them the 10th 11th and 12th; that the Regiments of Horſe, Foot, and Dragoons, of Jutland and Fuhnen, with the Militia of thoſe Provinces, ſhall draw together by the 14th in the Neighbourhood of Coldingen, where the King will ſpend 7 or 8 Days; and that 'twas computed the Number of thoſe Forces which are to aſſemble at Ringſtet will amount to 7000 Men, and of thoſe at Coldingen to 10000.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 2.

Hambourg, May 29. The Number of the Troops of the Circle propos'd to be admitted into this City, is not yet ſettled; our Magiſtrates and Burghers being unwilling to take in more than 800 Men, and the Miniſters and Generals of the Directors of the Circle inſiſting on our putting them into Poſſeſſion of 2 of our Gates and receiving in 1600 Men. 'Tis thought this Point will be finally agreed, and that the Troops will enter to Morrow: In the mean Time the Count of Schonborn having sent in a Letter from the Imperial Court to our Magistrates, by which the Governour and all Officers are forbidden to make any Resistance on Pain of Death and Confiscation of Estate, the Governour has desir'd and obtain'd his Dismission. 300 Danish Dragoons have posted themselves between this Place and Altena: The Queen's Battallion was expected Yesterday at Gluckstad from Oldenbourg; and Captain Brut is come to Gluckstad with 200 Seamen, in order to man 2 or 3 Frigates that are fitted out to be employ'd on the Elbe. 'Tis reckon'd that the Subsisting the Troops of the Circle, stands this City in 9000 Rixdollars a Day.
